

Instructions

This form is to be filled out by an individual or company owning or leasing an all-electric or plug-in hybrid vehicle, or an electric motorcycle and that wishes to receive a refund after the purchase and installation of a charging station for home use.

Only the owner of the electric vehicle can submit an application for a charging station refund.

- The spouse of the electric vehicle owner is not eligible for the Drive Electric Program and cannot apply for a charging station refund.
- A company can apply for a refund by submitting invoices and proof of payment made out to the company and showing that the charging station is installed at the home of one of the users of the business vehicle.
- In the case of a used vehicle, the vehicle owner's name and the address at which the charging station is installed must be different from the previous applications linked to the vehicle.

Supporting documents and their contents

The invoice or the proof of purchase of the charging station must contain the following information:

- Date of the transaction
- Name of the supplier or name of the supplier's company and his/her contact information
- Detailed description of the items included in the transaction
- Amount of each item included in the transaction as well as the final amount of the transaction (including all applicable taxes and fees)

The invoice or the proof of the installation fees for the charging station must provide a detailed description of the work that was carried out and of the materials that were used.

Specific cases

If you are not claiming expenses for the installation of a charging station because your home was already equipped with a 240V electrical outlet that complies with current regulation, you must enter this information in the appropriate section.

Declaration, consent and tax compensation

I acknowledge that the information provided in or in respect of this application will be used by Transition énergétique Québec (TEQ) and by the supplier designated by it to manage the financial incentive payable under the Program, among other things to verify eligibility, pay the financial incentive, and monitor and assess the Program. The only people who will have access to the information are those employees who need it for their work. The information may also be transferred to other government ministries and agencies for the purpose of implementing and overseeing the Drive Electric Program. I understand that failure to provide the information will prevent my application from being processed.

The social insurance number will be used to produce the RL-27 slip, «Government Payments», which Revenu Québec requires the TEQ to provide when paying a subsidy. The law also requires individuals to provide their social insurance numbers when slips must be issued to them. The telephone number and email address allow us to communicate with the participants to obtain, if need be, additional information essential to process their application or evaluate the program in which they have participated.

I understand that if I do not meet all the conditions and terms set out in the applicant guide and in the normative framework, the application review process may be delayed or the application may be deemed ineligible for the financial incentive.

I acknowledge that TEQ may ask that the incentive be repaid in the event of a false declaration.

Tax compensation

Applicants who wish to receive the financial incentive themselves will be subject to government compensation as defined in the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu, which allows certain amounts payable to recipients by public organizations to be withheld for the payment of a debt under a tax law in Québec, or under the Act to facilitate the payment of support.

Transition énergétique Québec shall not, in any circumstances whatsoever, be held liable for any damage or prejudice resulting from implementation of the Program.

Attestation and consent

I hereby declare that I have read and understood all the conditions and terms set out in the applicant guide and in the normative framework, along with the declarations and consents indicated earlier. I also declare that the information provided in or in respect of this application is true and complete.
